

Celluminova's Cookie Policy

What are cookies?

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behavior information. When you visit our website, we may collect information from you automatically through cookies or similar technology.

How do we use cookies?

Celluminova uses cookies in a limited manner to improve your experience on our website, including:

- Keeping you signed in
- Understanding how you use our website
- Collecting information about your visit to our website (using Google Analytics)

What types of cookies do we use?

Our website uses the following cookies for the purposes described below:

- Necessary cookies – These cookies are required for the website to function properly and cannot be disabled. They enable basic functions such as page navigation and secure access to the website.
- Statistical cookies – These cookies are used to understand how visitors interact with our website and to help us improve its functionality and content. Celluminova uses Google Analytics for this purpose. Statistical cookies are only used with your consent, which you can manage via our cookie banner.

We do not use marketing cookies.

How to manage cookies

You can manage your cookie preferences at any time via our cookie banner. You can also set your browser not to accept cookies. However, some website features may no longer work properly as a result.
